DON CAMPBELL FINISHES IN THE TOP 10 AT COLORADO NATIONAL SPEEDWAY

Campbell, CA (June 8, 2005) – Driver Don Campbell finished in the top-10 at the NASCAR Southwest Series race at Colorado National Speedway. Campbell had a sub-par qualifying effort and started 32nd but raced his way through the field to finish a strong 9th place.

"The GKI Construction Chevy was really fast today," said driver Don Campbell who leads the Sunoco Rookie of the Year standings. "I messed up in qualifying and had to start way back in pack. Track position is so important at this race. If I could have started up front, I had a top-five car or maybe could have challenged for the win. However, I am happy with a 9th place finish. I would like to thank my crew chief Dino Fry and all of my team for another outstanding performance."

Don Campbell leads the pack while racing toward the 2005 Rookie of the Year title.
