DON CAMPBELL FINISHES TOP ROOKIE IN BOTH COLORADO RACES

Campbell, CA (August 5, 2005) – Don Campbell was the top finishing Sunoco Rookie of the Year contender in the back-to-back weekend races. The NASCAR AutoZone Southwest Series races were July 23rd at Pikes Peak Raceway and July 30th at Colorado National Speedway. Campbell extended his points lead over Ryan Foster, Dustin Jones, Stephan Sadler and David Mayhew.

“This GKI Construction Chevy was awesome. I am so happy and relieved to have these two back-to-back races behind me,” said driver Don Campbell. “I am a long way from home and really felt the pressure of keeping the car in one piece. I really tried to be consistent and ended up with two more strong finishes. There is a lot of racing left but I like my chances for winning the Sunoco Rookie of the Year title. Thanks to a great team for preparing a great car.”
